[XXIst Year.] THURSDAY, September 12, 1765. [No. 1062.]

BOSTON, August 26.

CAPTAIN Daverson in a Ship from London, is hourly expected to arrive here. 'Tis said that he has the STAMP-PAPER on board, for this and the other New-England Governments, which will bear extended Forty Years.

Wednesday last a Ship arrived here from Leith, in North-Britain, in 9 Weeks Passage. At the Sight of this Ship, great Numbers of People were assembled on the Long Wharf, in Expectation of it's being Daverson from London, with the Stamp'd Paper on board.

Since the Resignation of the Stamp Officer, a Question has been thrown out—How shall we carry on Trade without the Stamp'd Papers?—Carry on no Trade at all, say some, for who would desire to increase his Property, at the Expence of LIBERTY?—Others say, That in Case there shall be no Officer to distribute the Stamp'd Papers after the first of November, a regular Protest will justify any of his Majesty's Subjects, in any Court of Justice, who shall carry on Business without them.

Some very judicious Persons are of Opinion, that the Wisdom of the British Parliament will never order any Measures to enforce an Act, utterly irreconcileable to the Friends, not of a Part only, as was the Case of the Cyder Act in England, but the WHOLE People of America.

To attempt the Enforcement of an Act on the Colonies by Military Strength, would tend to destroy their Usefulness to the Mother Country.——Commercial Intercourse must in a great Measure, if not totally, cease.——And, besides, a Colony of Soldiers is in Effect no Colony at all.

Should the Colonies cease to take off the Manufactures of Great-Britain, as they will be under a Necessity of doing very soon, unless the Affairs her Measures, Thousands of her useful Labourers and their Families must starve—So great a Dependance has the Mother upon her Children.

By a Gentleman who came to Town last Friday from Connecticut, we are informed, That the STAMP MAN for that Colony had appointed his Deputies, one of which, living at Windham, received a Letter from him, desiring him to come to New-Haven, and receive a Commission for that important Trust; but the good People of that Town soon had Knowledge of the Letter, surrounded his House, and demanded it of him, and then advised him not to have any Thing to do with that Office, left it should cost him dear; upon which he thought proper to write his Master by the same Post, that he might return the Commission for another Person, for he would have nothing to do with it.

NEWPORT, August 26.

We hear from New-London, that about Four o'Clock last Thursday Afternoon, was exhibited, in the most public Part of the Town, the Effigies of a Distributor of Stamps, with a Box on one of the Shoulders, and the Devil represented as looking out of the same. They were suspended in the Air, on a Gibbet, between 20 and 30 Feet from the Ground; and after being exposed about an Hour, were taken down, and carried through the Town, attended by the principal Part of the Inhabitants. The Cannon of the Fort were repeatedly discharged during the Time of Exhibition. Between Ten and Eleven the Effigies were consumed, amidst the Acclamations of the People. 'Tis said the most perfect Decorum was observed in all their Behaviour; and no Person suffered the least Injury.

PROVIDENCE, (N. E.) August 24.

MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES.

We are credibly informed that Augustus Johnston, Esq; Distributor of Stamps for this Colony, hath openly declared that he will not attempt to execute his Office against the Will of our Sovereign Lord the People (to use his own Words.) This Gentleman has discovered a Zeal equal with any other American, against the Impositions from Britain, and was not even privy to his Appointment of Stamp-Master. His former Conduct, joined to the aforesaid Declaration, are quite sufficient to wipe away any evil Impressions, which may have been conceived against him on Account of his Place.

When the late great Stir happened in Boston, a certain Hon. Gentleman threatened the Populace that he would raise the Militia upon them, when some of them facetiously answered, that they were already raised.

Able Jockies give it as their Opinion, that the American Horses are of too mettlesome a Breed to stand still under the Operation of Branding, and that whoever should attempt to apply a hot S to their Buttocks, would be in no small Danger from their kind Legs. For saith one wittily, Sure none but Asses will stand still to be branded. However the said Jockies will not aver that the four Asses here will give much Trouble to the Branding Company.

We hear that a certain Jerard Ingersoll, Stamp-man, was hang'd at Norwich last Tuesday Evening, in Effigy. His dying Speech is not yet come to Hand.

NEW-YORK, September 2.

We congratulate our Countrymen upon the late Resignations of the Stamp-Officers——and especially the Friends and well-wishers of the Gentleman appointed to that Office in this City. The Number of his Friends and well-wishers, which was considerable before, is greatly increased by this Resignation; which has entirely cleared his Character from the Imputation of joining in the Design to Enslave his Country; for we are well assured, as his Appointment was without his Solicitation or Knowledge, so his Resignation was voluntary, and not the Effect of any Menace or Disturbance, nothing of which has yet appeared in this Place.

We are informed by a Gentleman from New-Haven, that the House of the Stamp Officer there was last Week surrounded by a Multitude, who desired to know whether he intended to act in that Office or Resign. His Answer was, that having accepted the Office in Person, he did not think he had Power to Resign.——They next demanded whether he would promise to deliver the Stamp Materials, as soon as they arrived, to them, in order to make a Bonfire——or to have his House pulled down.

He endeavoured to evade the Answer, desiring them to wait till the Meeting of the Assembly, and several other Pretences,——but none of them availing, he promised that when they arrived, he would either re-ship them to be sent back, or that when they were in his House, his Doors should be open, and they would then act as they thought proper, on which they dispersed.

By a Letter from Virginia, we are informed, and requested to Publish, That on Monday last Week, at the Town of Dumfries, the Effigies of  , a Native of that Colony, lately arrived there from England, with the --- honourable Commission of STAMP DISTRIBUTOR, was exposed thro' the Streets of the Town, accompanied by Hundreds of all Ranks: It was on Horseback, with it's Face towards the Horse's Tail, and a  A Rope tied round it's Neck, with a HALTER: And receiv'd the Insults of the Congregation, by Canseing, Whipping, (the Mosaic Law) Pillorying, Cropping, Hanging and Burning, &c. &c.

At the same Place happen'd a very Tragical Affair, on the Wednesday Morning after: A Challenge having been sent by a young Gentleman to Col. John Baylis, was accepted, and the Parties met; when the Second to the Challenger took up the Cause, and engaged Mr. Baylis, with Pistols. The first Fire hit Col. Baylis in the Thigh and Groin, which prov'd Mortal, and about 5 Hours after he Expired. RAN away from the Subscriber, last Night, a Convict Servant Man, named William Lewis, about 5 Feet 7 Inches high, had his Hair on, but, as he took with him a Grizzle Wig, 'tis supposed he will cut it off. He had with him the Discharge of Thomas Gray, by which Name he may probably Pass; also some Papers relating to Work done by Gray. He had on, and took with him, a new blue Broad-Cloth Coat, with yellow Buttons, an old grey Cloth Coat, old Leather Breeches, Osnabrig Shirt, old Stockings and Pumps, and Hempen-Roll Trowsers.

Two Negroes are supposed to be gone with him: One named Sam, about 24 Years old, near the Height of Lewis: Had a blue Fearnought Waistcoat, Osnabrig Shirt, and Hempen-Roll Trowsers. The other, named Bondy, a little Taller, with some Guiney Marks in his Forehead.

Lewis cannot Read: I think he has a large Scar on one of his Shoulders, occasioned by a Broad Sword. He talks inwardly, has a down Look, and 'tis probable will soon quit the Negroes.

Whoever will deliver the said Lewis to Me, living near Annapolis, shall have Three Pistoles Reward; and Four Dollars for each of the Negroes.

N. B. All Masters of Vessels are forewarn'd from carrying them off, as they will answer the contrary at their Peril.

We gratefully acknowledge the obliging Disposition already shewn by the Public to encourage our Undertaking of the RUM DISTILLERY, and reassure to hope for the further Continuance of their Favour, in carrying on a Scheme of such apparent Utility to the Trade of the Province; more especially at a Juncture when the Necessity, as well as Advantage, of promoting our own Manufactures, is become so very apparent. It is with singular Satisfaction we find our Hopes so fully answered, by the general Approbation given our RUM for its superior Quality; and we are determined to support its Character, should our Profits be ever so small. Some Obstacles that hitherto prevented our Distilling so fast as expected being removed, the Business of the Distillery is now carried on by us in the most extensive Manner, by which Means, having a constant Stock of Rum on Hand, our Friends, either in this or the neighbouring Provinces, may depend on being always well supplied. Importers of MOLASSES may depend on constant Purchases of the same, for which we shall always allow the Philadelphia Price, or be willing to contract with Gentlemen inclined to import Molasses, before their Vessels go out. Rousby-Hall, July 29, 1765.

RAN away from the Subscriber, on Saturday last, a Servant Man, named JOSEPH DENT, about 23 Years of Age; had on, when he went away, a brown Thickset or Fustian Coat and Breeches, a short blue Jacket, and a red Cloth Waistcoat over it; a brown Wig, Yarn Stockings, and common Shoes; and probably has taken more Clothes with him.

He is about 5 Feet 9 Inches high, well made, and active, is full faced, rather of a pale Complexion, marked with the Small-Pox, and hesitates a little in speaking, says he was born in France, but went to England young. He speaks French well, and English so well, that no Person would take him for a Foreigner. I purchased him for a Gardener, of which Business he is very ignorant, though he speaks well on the Subject, as he does on many others, being artful, and very smart. He pretends also to understand the Shoemaker's Trade, and some Branches of Husbandry. He has been in the Army a great Part of his Life, and a considerable Time in the French Service.

A few Days before he eloped, he applied to one M'Donald, a Man who had a Pass from George Stewart, Esq; of Annapolis, desiring a Copy, so that it is probable he has forged a Pass either in Dr. Stewart's, or my Name, as he writes a pretty good Hand.

Whoever apprehends the said Servant, and will deliver him here, shall receive Two Pounds Reward.
